

Free Kirstin Blaise Lobato

Wrongfully convicted and imprisoned for the July 2001 murder of a homeless man near the Las Vegas Strip.

- No forensic, physical, eyewitness or confession evidence linking either her or her car to the murder or the murder scene, while fingerprints, DNA evidence and bloody shoeprints leading away from the body exclude her.
- No evidence that either she or her car was in Las Vegas at any time on the day of the murder.
- On the day of the murder eleven alibi witnesses saw or talked with her in Panaca, 170 miles north of Las Vegas, where she was living.
- Arrested without any police investigation, while prime suspects were ignored.

Kirstin Blaise Lobato's Unreasonable Conviction is a book about the case. Written by Hans Sherrer, editor and publisher of Justice:Denied — the magazine for the wrongly convicted. Order for $10, www.justicedenied.org/kbl.htm
